Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Lina, a 16 year old Iranian girl, has broken the law, a capital offense: she became a Christian. She is arrested and given ONE brutal choice: renounce Christ and confess Allah and Mohammed his prophet. One of her captors arranges a marriage contract for her to a strong Muslim man who will keep her from foolishness and eternal torment with the infidels. In such a marriage there would certainly be absolute obedience and perhaps respect, but could anyone dream that there might be romance and love? She faces extreme darkness with no apparent hope, but then there are also glimmers of brilliant light. In times of greatest stress Lina feels the presence of her spiritual warrior (guardian angel). In dreams Adonai reveals to Lina facts that could catapult her to undesired fame. The shy girl s desire to live a quiet life may not be realized. Can she possibly avoid sharing Adonai s message that will turn the Christian, Jewish, and Muslim world on its head as the last day approaches? Her choice could cost her everything. Join Lina s adventure as she crosses the Middle East to seek God s Plan for her life and finds God s next step for the world in Jerusalem. The plight of many Christians in the Middle East is tenuous at best. In many countries the simple act of sharing one s Christian faith can prove fatal on the spot. Government persecution can be just as repressive. The accusation of Christianity could be terrifying whether true or not. There can be no illusion of easy believe-ism here. Under these conditions how would you react if you were, like Lina, accused of...
