American in idea, it is just that utterly absurd nonsense which, admirably given by a sextette, but mainly depending upon the vivacity of Miss Thompson and the quaintness of Mr. , in the delivery of the words, is safe to appeal irresistibly to the sense of humour of any English-speaking audience wherever it may be. The first scene is almost too much for the rest of the piece; and, on reflection, if such amusing trifles will bear reflection, two such scenes would be quite enough. By the way, it will be as well to remind the gentleman who is styled in the programme Chef Orchestra (sic) that the theatre is a very small one, and that the audience have drums in their ears as well as he has in his orchestra. Such a common fault, and such an uncommon nuisance! Before quitting Charing Cross Your Representative noticed on the bill, announced after the name of the Chef a1 Orchestra, those of the Machinist, the Property Master, the Gasman (!), and the Prompter. Indeed, the Property-men and Machinist are mentioned twice in the programme; i. e. , at the head and at the tail. Why I do not remember this anywhere else. I like it: it's very kind and nice, and shows a commendable absence of pride in a management ready to acknowledge publicly the services of its subordinates. But why stop here Why not go on After Property Master, Mb. Scabbobow; Gasman,...
