Gore (chairman) presiding. Present: Senators Gore (chairman), Page, Smith of South Carolina, Smith of Georgia, Gronna, Shafroth, Norris, Kenyon, Thompson, Wadsworth, and Johnson of South Dakota. Present also: Mr. Frank S. Washburn, president the American Cyanamid Co., and Mr. George M. Schurman, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City. The Chairman. Gentlemen, the committee has before it this morning Senate bill 4971, introduced by Senator Smith of South Carolina, to authorize the designation and withdrawal of water-power sites and the construction of water-power and other plants by the United States for the manufacture of nitrates, and for other purposes. The clerk will insert the bill referred to in full in the record. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President at any time, in his discretion, may, by Executive order, designate for the exclusive use of the United States any site upon a navigable river, the improvement of which for purposes of navigation will make available at such site surplus water power over and above the needs for navigation. After being so designated, and until the designation is modified or revoked, every such site shall be developed and improved only in the manner and for the purposes authorized by this act. Sec. 2. That the President may also at any time, in his discretion, withdraw from settlement,...
