Another assures me that he has found the great principle in mutual banking and an unlimited supply of paper tendollar pieces. When every man has a pocket full of bank stock, Utopia becomes a geographical fact. When we can draw on the bank for whatever amount we need by simply depositing a philosopher s stone i/n the safe, perpetual motion becomes a crystallized reality. I have a friend, an editor of a newspaper, who writes me that he has found perpetual motion in a graduated income tax by which every man is to be fined in proportion to his prosperity, the fines to go to the unprosperous. He does not know that...
