The object of this survey cannot be better stated than in the memorandum which I laid before Lord Canning in November 1861, and which led to my immediate appointment as Archaeological Surveyor to the Government of India, as notified in the following minute: Minute by the Right Hon ble the Governor General of India in Council on the Antiquities of Upper India, - dated 22nd January 1862. In November last, when at Allahabad, I had some communications with Colonel A. Cunningham, then the Chief Engineer of the North-Western Provinces, regarding an investigation of the archaeological remains of Upper India. It is impossible to pass through that part, - or indeed, so far as my experience goes, any part - of the British territories in India without being struck by the neglect with which the...
